

Mandarin Continued - Fun for Kids

This course concentrates in two areas for different age groups :

Students in all age groups will learn phrases & short sentences, adding basic nouns, verbs, & adjectives to their vocabulary, building fluency, all the while continuing to keep their grammar in check.

Students age 7 and up are taught to write characters, use a dictionary & type characters on a computer. They will learn the most frequently used radicals (word roots) & related characters. It will be even more exciting when your little one using a Chinese dictionary to look up a character or make a Chinese character "magically appear" on the computer.

This class will give your child the added confidence she needs to continue learning and to succeed.
