CCCNJ Chinese School Principal –Bill Chen’s Message:

Welcome to the start of the 2008-2009 school year! We started off the new year with great weather, highly motivated kids, and teachers ready to go. Registration this year was hectic as always, but overall it was fairly smooth. I’m happy to report that of the 51 school families this year, 8 are new. This year we also have launched a new website. Thanks to Bill Hom for all his time spent on getting the site set up. With this new site, we’ve been showing up more in search engine results. We have received many more “cold call” queries about the school than ever before. We also had our first event of the year on 9/20/08, which was our Fall semester pot luck lunch. It’s a great chance for all returning families to renew friendships and our new families to make new friends. Fun was had by all. Finally, for those who haven’t already done so, please sign up for hall monitor positions. We really need your help in providing for the safety of our kids. Thanks everyone and I look forward to seeing you all in the coming weeks!
